FROM: Melanie Spain, MIDLANDER

TO: Sam McLean, Director of Housing

This year the MIDLANDER is presenting a special section on the unique problems of five kinds of campus life-styles, classified by residence. This section will be designed to poke gentle fun at the day-to-day problems of each mode of existence. We were wondering if you could furnish us some copy ideas by relating humorous incidents you might know of that happened in MTSU student residences. Thank you.

— Mel

FROM: Judy Smith, Associate Dean of Students

TO: Clarice Long, High-Rise West

Check out 233 in your dorm — I heard she was last seen about three weeks ago with two suitcases headed east on foot. 706 is charging admission to the sundeck from gullible freshman girls — either stop her or find a way to make her divvy up.

— Judy

FROM: Brett Blevins, Inter-Fraternity Council

TO: Paul Cantrell, Assistant Dean of Students

A certain anonymous fraternity has questioned IFC regulations concerning parties. How long can one go on? (I know that university rules specify a time of day, but these guys are talking in terms of weeks and months.) Please hand down a decision before 6:00 Friday at all possible (that's when it's supposed to start).

— Brett

SANDRA: Please tell Gary that I won't be able to go back to Shelbyville this weekend — I forgot to go to Chem lab and will have to go when I get out of my 11:00 class. Tell them not to wait for me.

Do you know anyone I can spend the weekend with here?

— Mary Beth

UNIVERSITY PARK

Dear Mr. McLean:

Everybody here is up in arms about the midnight gate. How do I convince the city that University Park is a respectable apartment complex and not a big co-ed dorm? I've got this place's image to think about.

Cordially,
Mrs. Mabel Brock
Resident Manager

Jerry: If you'll buy the 'food' you can watch the football game tonight in the apartment with me and Rodney and Jackie. (The wives are going to have coffee together at Jackie's apartment.) The Colts are six-point favorites over the Vikings — I'll bet with you either way.

Are you coming to intramural football practice tomorrow? We have a scrimmage with the Kappa Sigs.

— Victor

Dr. Crawford:

I have the book report that is due in Western Civ class today, but I can't bring it to class because the only ride that leaves Manchester today is snowed in. If your mid-term exam is still scheduled for Thursday please tell the girl that gives you this note and she'll tell me. If the snow is melted Thursday I'll be back for the exam.

Thank you,
Cynthia Wordley

FROM: Sam McLean, Director of Housing

TO: All Dorm Directors

As soon as possible, cross-examine each resident in your hall and find who was responsible for putting that twenty-foot tall, graphically accurate replica of Michelangelo's DAVID on top of the rain roof between Felder and Wood Halls. I'm sure the crowd on campus for homecoming got a big charge out of it.

— Sam

Dear Murfreesboro Electric Department,

Please stop sending reminders of the bill for January electrical service. In the first place, I paid it. I lost the cancelled check, but it was dated February 18 or 19 I think. In the second place, my husband just recently let me take over the electric bill and he is beginning to think I don't know what I'm doing. So do us both a favor and stop billing us.

Cordially yours,
Mrs. E.E. LaBlanc

FROM: Sam McLean, Director of Housing

TO: Melanie Spain, MIDLANDER

I am in receipt of your memo asking me to provide technical assistance in the preparation of a "residences" section of the 1971 MIDLANDER. As I understand it, this is to be a satiric slap in the face of all us hardworking residence officials, and for that reason I must insist that I know of nothing humorous that happens in MTSU residences that your staff would be interested in.

— Sam

Mary Lee — Regarding that misprint in the student handbook that allow boys to use the sundeck: I talked to one of the supreme court justices. He said that if Jim and Ronnie tried to get on the sundeck through the halls they would get in trouble for being in a girls' dorm. Ronnie is trying to find a tightlipped helicopter pilot — keep your fingers crossed.

Beth D.

Pam: I've lost my key and can't get into the room. Go find Emily; she has another. I think she was going to a home ec class at 9:25 — catch her there.

Amy

TO: Mrs. Rose Edwards, McHenry Hall
113 has built a sailboat in her room, I've been told. Find out the following: (a) how she got all the materials to her room without anyone getting wise, (b) how long she's been at this project, and and most importantly (c) what she's planning to USE it for.

Urgently,

Judy Smith, Assoc. Dean of Students

TO: Sam McLean, Director of Housing

Suspicious noises, coming from upstairs, make me think that someone is knocking down a wall to form a two-room suite. What are my legal rights here? What kind of workman's compensation does a dorm mother qualify for? Just asking, mind you.

Mrs. Mildred Frazier, Rutledge Hall

Il grande gruppo è molto forte

FROM: Jim Free, Director, Gracy Hall

TO: Sam McLean, Director of Housing

What, within the law, can I do to 218, who likes to crawl around on the roof at night? Tell me quick. Also, 102 hasn't checked in; can you tell me something about him?

TO: Sam McLean, Director of Housing

Re the missing furniture in 320, Beasley Hall: I can't help it. My roommate has sold my bed, chair, desk, bookshelves, and bulletin board in quick succession. What he's doing with the money I don't know, but I haven't got it, honest.

— Joe Murphreb, Box 3017

TO: Jim Free, Gracy Hall

I wish I could tell you about 102. His mail and his phone are going untouched, and B & L has tried to deliver pizzas there twice that he's ordered under fictitious names. Check his room out once more, okay?

— Sam

Jimmy: I've lost my key and can't get into my room. Go find Cedric; he has another. He was going to Chem lab at 1:00 — catch him there.

— Red

FROM: Jim Free, Gracy Hall

TO: Sam McLean, Director of Housing

The janitors tell me that 102 is an electrical closet. I won't say anything if you don't.

— Jim

To The Security Police:

I have lost my keys and cannot get inside my car.
Please excuse this violation while I hunt for my keys.
Thank you,

C.D. Lankford

There Isn't Any Student Parking In This Area!

Where are you from? Benita

Tiptonville, Why? Doris

I need a ride home and I heard you say you were from West
Tennessee. Can I ride with you? When are you going? B.

Right after this class, but I thought you were from Memphis. D.

I am. That's all right. B.

But Tiptonville isn't anywhere near Memphis. D.

That's all right. B.

You'll have to help me buy gas. D.

That's all right. B.

FROM: George Mitchell, Director of Married Student Housing
TO: All residents

Wednesday the Roto-Rooter representative will be available to check any faulty plumbing. Slow drains and flooding commodes should be examined by him at this time.

Bob: I've gone to the store. The baby ran out of Pampers and milk. Put the roast in the oven at 4:00. You had a phone call and they said it was important, but I forgot who it was.

Love ya,
Helen

FROM: George Mitchell, Director of Married Student Housing
TO: All residents

It has come to my attention that many apartments are infested by insects. If you have this problem, please stop by my office and I will give you the sprayer to kill them with. So it goes.

John,

I've gone home to Mother.

Dear Sirs:

I am a college student living in a duplex. My landlord, whom I don't trust at all, shares the other half. The door between our halves of the house has a broken lock. Does my renter's insurance still hold good if my landlord burglarizes the home through the lock that he's supposed to fix?

Urgently,
Janice Morgan

DRAMA

For six long decades, Raider basketball has pursued the elusive quest after greatness. The second year in the life of the institution, the first team was floored with less than an auspicious season in a three-game schedule. Record: 1-2. There followed the coaching eras of Miles, Stephenson, Faulkinberry, Waller, Floyd, Freeman, Midgett, Patty, Murphy, Diddle, Stokes, and Trickey. The quest ranged through many valleys and some peaks - not soaring peaks but, nevertheless, elevations of such height that provided long range views of what could be.

Now, the Jimmy Earle era began. The 1971-72 five with Sykes, Bonner, Brown, Drew, Johnson, and others portended a quickening of the search. Picked last in a pre-season poll of Ohio Valley Conference coaches, the Raiders, angered and prodded by Coach Earle and his staff, fought on even terms, or moreso, with their deadly, but sometimes surprised, opponents. Mighty Western fell for the first time in many years. Four games were lost by a composite total of six points. The year's end record: 15-11. Heart and courage were the watchwords. "Best bunch I've ever coached," said Jimmy Earle. Sadly, the last game in Memorial Gymnasium, that against Austin Peay, was lost. But the warmth pervading the quest can be felt. The goal may be near. Next season the Raiders move one door north to the magnificent fieldhouse with a returning nucleus, a group of stellar freshmen and - best of all, a stirring tradition engendered this year.

COLLAGE — "A representative of a reservoir of developing talent in the MTSU student body."

COLUMBIA SCHOLASTIC PRESS ASSOCIATION
Medalist Award, 1971

Now in its fifth year, COLLAGE has taken its place as a unique creative MTSU publication. COLLAGE's approach is different from all other campus publications, being limited to no certain style or type of content. Versatility is the key, and COLLAGE is always looking for new material, new ideas, new looks.

COLLAGE provides reading enjoyment for the student in areas of literature, art, and general feature, as well as providing an outlet for campus creative talent and an area of journalistic experience for staff members.

Each year so far has seen a few slow and painful steps of progress. This year the staff has more than doubled in size and moved to a spacious, but temporary, residence in the old maintenance building.

The house sounds so hollow
Whenever you're gone,
The records don't play — no one puts them on.
There's no guitar music
Your dad and I don't play,
There's no one in the kitchen
Eating ten times a day.
We'd sure like to keep you
At home here with us —
But we're letting you go
Without too much of a fuss.
Just remember we're waiting,
Watching as the night star soars,
And we're holding out for you
If you need us anymore.
We can't always be near you
But our blessings we give,
May God walk beside you
For as long as you live.
So go brightly, go bravely,
And reach for the sky.
We love you so very much
(There's something in my eye).
So Bye.

The 1972 MIDLANDER is an experiment. Like all experiments it could be a total failure. Yet, every experiment involves a learning experience upon whose outcome depends on you, the reader. In considering the format of the 1972 MIDLANDER, we didn't think you wanted a yearbook in a 1967 format with updated pictures. We tried not to give you one. Hopefully the year 1972 will be a year of transition in the history of the yearbook at MTSU. You cannot change all tradition in one year; nor is change necessarily beneficial. But we are fighting the death of the yearbook, not only on this campus but on all campuses, and if we don't change into a relevant reflector of the university, we will die. We hope that the opening section of this book will have meaning to all readers. The remainder of the book only has meaning to different segments of the university; we tried to be representative in this presentation.

In this book we tried not to bog you down with meaningless captions and token commentaries or stilted posed shots. In this stress on informality and pictorial comment we don't mean to offend, only to make note of. We may present you with ideas and problems. You may or may not agree. But communication, important though it is, is only a start. What you do after communication is achieved, whether you are moved to positive action or remain passive and uninvolved, is of primary and urgent concern. We deplore apathy as many before us have deplored it. We may be as unsuccessful in combatting it as others have been. But if one of the things we show you in this book motivates you to act, our existence is not without purpose.

"Time it was,
And what a time it was.
It was
A time of innocence
A time of confidences
Long ago.
It must be.
I have a photograph
Preserve your memories
They're all that's left you."
